

Thomas Quatroche, Jr., PhD

Thomas Quatroche, Jr., PhD is a native of WNY. Tom has worked in executive level roles for 19 years and has worked in both higher education and healthcare. In May, 2015, Tom was appointed president of Erie County Medical Center (ECMC). As such, he serves as the corporate affairs officer, responsible for external affairs and strategic initiatives of the corporation, including affiliations with Great Lakes Health, Kaleida Health, and other organizations important to the corporation's strategic direction. In November, 2015, he was appointed acting Chief Executive Officer of ECMC.

For the past ten years, served as the Sr. Vice President of Marketing, Planning and Business Development at ECMC and was responsible for marketing, public, government and community relations, strategic planning and the development of new business for ECMC. He also oversees the departments of General Surgery, Oncology, Head & Neck/Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, Bariatrics, and Oral Oncology Maxillofacial Prosthetics.

Tom has served on statewide committees in education and healthcare for both the State University of New York and the Healthcare Association of New York State (HANYS). He has represented ECMC on HANYS's Task Force on Improving New York State's Medicaid Program and Allied Executives Committee and is currently serving on the New York State and Western New York Health Association Board, Trocaire College Board of Trustees, Buffalo State Foundation Board and Buffalo Renaissance Foundation Board of Directors. As a lifelong Western New Yorker, Tom has been very involved in the community. He served on the Hamburg Town Board from 1994-2009, was a member of the Immaculata Academy School Board from 2004 to 2009, and has been involved in other civic organizations. Tom is also the past recipient of Buffalo Business First's 40 Under 40 award for business and civic leadership and has been a featured presenter at healthcare conferences regarding the new Federal Healthcare Reform.

Tom received his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Marketing from the State University of New York College at Fredonia, a Master's degree in Student Personnel Administration from the State University of New York College at Buffalo and his Doctorate in Higher Education – Educational Leadership and Policy from the State University of New York at Buffalo.