

Karen A. Ziemianski, RN, MS

Degrees:

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Master of Science in Nursing

Number of year's experience:

30 plus years

List of job responsibilities:

Responsible for safe patient care delivery, regulatory compliance and quality nursing care.

Identifies and articulates the vision and strategic direction for the delivery of patient care and the nursing discipline across all assigned patient care departments. Assures that the patient care delivery model and the clinical and staffing standards for nursing and patient care are consistent with current research and professional standards and with the mission, vision and values of the organization. Appraises, evaluates and reports the results of overall nursing operations and patient experience. Establishes and maintains policies and procedures.

Collaborates with executive staff on the development and preparation of short-term and long-range strategic plans

Monitors patient throughput and takes necessary actions to improve patient flow, placement and coordination of services

Assists in the preparation of hospital/department budgets and allocation of funds based upon review of department estimates/recommendations

Participates in hospital/medical staff committee meetings; attends and serves on professional/civic service organizations as hospital representative.

Maintains professional growth and development and provides community leadership from a nursing prospective with appropriate community and education organizations.

Awards:

ECMC Springfest Gala Distinguished Service Award, Health Care 50, Listing of Top Health Care Providers in WNY, ECMC Nurse of the Month, Network of Religious Communities Leadership Award