

our passion  our patients

My passion...

“I am passionate about being a member of a team of dedicated health professionals that constantly go ‘above and beyond’ in order to provide the best care and to deliver outstanding services to the people who depend on us – our patients.”

Patrick Mahoney, PT

Letters from our Patients

The staff is friendly and caring. They showed a genuine concern for my wellbeing and recovery. From the first person to the young man who wheeled me out after my discharge, they all really were a credit to the hospital. No one looks forward to going to the hospital, but if it should arise again in my future, there is no doubt ECMC will be my first and only choice.

Charles, Former Patient

